Join the Roman Society and become part of the leading organisation in the UK for those interested in Rome and the Roman Empire, including Roman Britain.

The Society encourages Roman studies by offering a wide range of grants to support research and publications, providing training opportunities for young researchers, and promoting the teaching of Latin in schools: www.romansociety.org

Our Publications

- Two annual journals: the Journal of Roman Studies, which contains articles and book reviews dealing with the Roman world in general, and Britannia, which has articles and reviews specifically on Roman Britain. Both are available in print & online.

  !JRS  !Britannia

- A biannual e-Newsletter: Epistula, keeping members up to date with news of recent discoveries, conferences, exhibitions, research, and publications.

  !Epistula

- Two series of monographs (JRS and Britannia). Past volumes are now available on Open Access at https://ArchaeologyDataService.ac.uk/

The Hellenic and Roman Library

(www.hellenicandromanlibrary.org)

Members can enjoy access to the Library, which is maintained jointly with the Hellenic Society and the University of London’s Institute of Classical Studies. It is one of the world’s foremost Classics lending libraries and contains over 150,000 volumes, including almost 700 current periodical titles, and many digital resources.

!Library

If you are not able to visit the library, you can still benefit from access to JSTOR and the Digital Loeb Classical Library. Members can also request postal loans and scans from books/journals.

Events

We organise a programme of public lectures and conferences, visits to sites and museums, and lectures arranged with local branches of the Classical Association. The society also hosts the biennial international Roman Archaeology Conference: www.romansocietyrac.ac.uk. You can watch past lectures on our YouTube channel: www.youtube.com/c/romansociety.
